

Limerick Club 26th April 2024

Thank you for your Contributions.

If I should win lots of money,
I know this sounds very funny.
But I'd share with you,
That's what I'd do.
If you believe that, you are a dummy!
(RS)

If I should win lots of Money,
I'd go somewhere hot and sunny.
Where, well out of reach,
Propped up on a beach,
I'd find it all terribly funny.
(TJ)

If I should win lots of money,
I'd go somewhere that was sunny.
If Australia I choosed,
And ate too much food,
You would find me in the "dunny."
(CG)

("Choosed?" I plead poetic licence.)

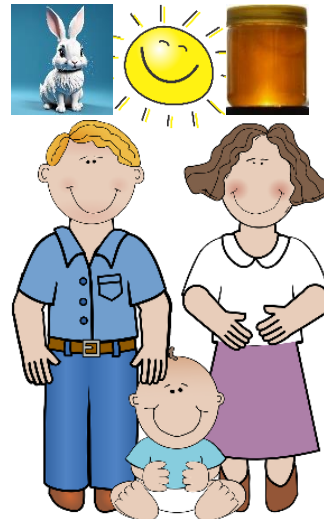

If I should win lots of money,
I would share it with you, you know Honey?
But if you should win lots,
Like pots and pots,
You'd be off like a racing bunny.
(RS)

I'm Bunny, if I won some money,
I'd marry my girlfriend called Honey.
And if we went wild,
And we had a child,
There'd be Bunny, Honey and Sonny.
(CG)

(Tricky, if the child was a girl.)

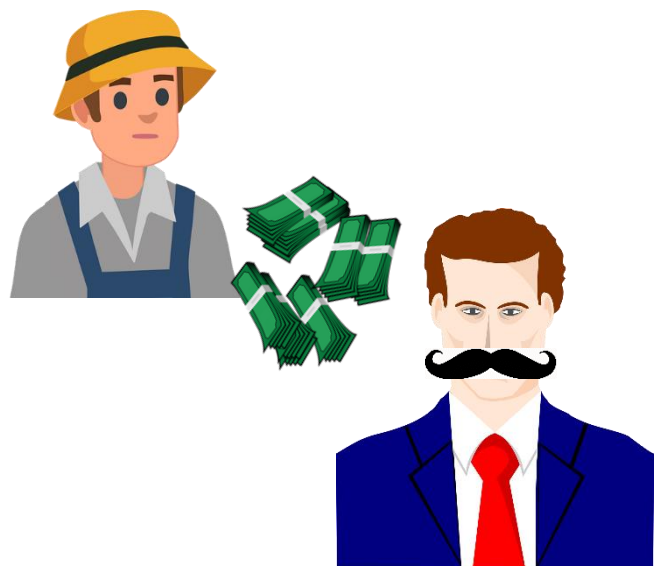

If I should win lots of money,
I'd fly off to somewhere sunny.
I'd let no-one know,
I'm studying calypso,
In a land of milk and honey.
(SJS)

If I should win lots of money,
I'd find it awfully funny.
I'd think it a trick. It
Depends on a ticket,
I won't buy for love nor money.
(TJ)

If I should win lots of money.
I should fly off to somewhere sunny.
I'd wine and dine,
That would be fine.
I might even miss you, my Honey.
(RS)

If I should win a load of cash,
I'd go on a big spending bash.
New suits and new shirts,
I'd spend 'til it hurts.
Then grow an enormous moustache.
(CG)

If I should win large loads of cash,
I'd put on a whole week-long bash.
But I'm old and tottery,
And I don't do the lottery,
So this is just all balderdash.
(EVH)

Images from Pixabay

Suggested First Line for Next Week

“I'm thinking of learning to dance”

Or one of your own choice.

Contributions, please, to limericks@bridportu3a.org.uk

Before 18.00 hrs Thursday 2nd May 2024